Scheduling

Faculty needing software installed on the computers in these rooms must have a licensed copy of the software. A minimum of two months' leeway, prior to the beginning of a semester, is required/recommended before software can be installed on a technology classroom machine or