

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY HONOR & INTEGRITY SYSTEM

reported during the spring and summer of 2008 and were not completed by the time the annual report was compiled. In all instances a hearing panel found th least a “C” for a passing grade for the course. Within the online course, 2 honor code violations did occur and one student received an XF for the course as a sanction for the violation.

The summer session of the Development and Integrity class was delivered in a face-to-face format, meeting every week day for two weeks. Six students successfully completed the course during the summer session.