

Undergraduate Assessment of Student Learning Report
Report for Academic Year: 2021-2022

student to have mastered an SLO if his or her average score across all measures of the skills associated with the SLO is at least 75%; we judge the student to have demonstrated excellence if that average is at least 90%. Class Specific Objectives: we aim for each class to contribute to student success, and judge this by class-specific performance on relevant SLOs. Specifically, we want a) the mean score over all measures of an SLO, in

Year-on-year comparison for class specific objectives: Year-on-year comparison with respect to class specific objectives is uninformative: scores are not materially different (i.e. all are above benchmark), excepting Philo 320, which was not assessed in 2020-2021.